

Your international challenge. As market leader we guarantee the quality in telecommunication.

We are looking for two employees to fill the following position as soon as possible

Project Engineer (f/m)

full time (40 hours per week) performing the following:

Your tasks:

- Technical consultation of the customers, business partner and distributors
- Technical consultation of our sales colleagues
- Treatment of technical questions for offers and advertisings
- Preparation and realisation of presentations as well as demonstrations of the Keynote SIGOS portfolio
- Construction as well as the introduction of the Keynote SIGOS products for test positions
- Cooperation in projects as a technical expert
- Activity in an international application field

Your requirements:

- Completed academic degree in information technology, electrical engineering or a similar branch of study
- Appropriate IT skills are a precedent condition
- Analytical, systematic and structured functioning
- Teamwork, flexibility and capacity
- You are a team player, self confident and you have very good oral and written English language skills

Beneficial knowledge:

- Further language skills, e.g. Arabic, French, Japanese etc.
- Extensive program experiences
- Program experience in the Unix/Linux sphere
- Know-how about telecommunication protocols and net architectures in 2G, 3G and IP

Keynote SIGOS provides its customers in mobile telephony with broad testing solutions worldwide.

If you like the challenge of being part of an innovative company with highly motivated staff, please send your complete application including your desired salary and the earliest possible starting date via e-mail to:

Keynote SIGOS GmbH > Mrs. Yvette Dörfler
Klingenhofstrasse 50d > 90411 Nuremberg, Germany
jobs@keynote-sigos.com
www.keynote-sigos.com

